Your package includes a 2-3 min video of the home, a one page website with the video and a description of the property with agent bio. We can link this directly from the MLS Listing! Also included is a one-page flyer design. We take your pictures and write up of the home and make a clean and appealing flyer to place on the sign of the property.

Additional services:

Digital Photography: Let Alpine Studio take pictures of your property for web or print use.

Professional Video bios for Agents: Get people excited to work with you by putting a video bio on your web page. This lets potential customers get to know you on your website without actually meeting in person. Let your personality come through and set yourself apart from the rest of the real estate agents out there!
